

Nicholas,

HUZZAH!

My sincerest congratulations on solving the unsolvable ciphers, crafted by the villainous Monsieur DeVries. While he is disappointed, I, his humble servant, am enthralled by your intelligence and supreme perseverance in the face of adversity.

My master reluctantly sends your reward, as promised, for your completion of this colossal undertaking, as well as to celebrate your birth.

Only the best for the Genius of the Western Border: 2 for 1 sandwiches at Arby's.

Just kidding! Could you imagine? Instead, please send the magic word to the Monsieur himself to convene for your real gift.

Once again, my sincerest congratulations. Give my best to Lady Carina and Prince Biscuit.

All the best,

Old School Still Cool (aka Kate)
